LEAHI HOME IS BENEFICIARY OF B. F. DILLINGHAM

To his growing list of great benefactions to local educational, benevolent and charitable institutions, B. F. Dillingham has added yet another. In addition to the generous gifts already detailed by the Star-Bulletin, Leahi Home must be mentioned. News of the gift to this worthy institution was received Saturday afternoon.

In selecting Oahu College as a representative of educational institutions, Palama Settlement, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. as examples of institutions devoted to sociological and uplift work and Leahi Home as a society which is combating dread disease and seeking to cure or alleviate the sufferings of the afflicted, B. F. Dillingham shows that he has given careful study to local conditions and to the work being done by the various local institutions. By his gifts he is expressing his appreciation of the work which they are doing and splendid impetus is given to the work which they are undertaking.

THAYER GIVES NOTICE TO POLITICAL PARTIES TO FILE PLATFORMS

Wade Warren Thayer, secretary of the territory, has published a notice in which paragraph four of section 26 of the revised laws, 1915, is called to attention of all political parties intending to participate in the primary election to be held October 7, next.

Secretary Thayer requests that copies of the platforms of the various parties, as well as the names of the members of their central and county committees, be forwarded to him at an early date as possible, so that recognition may be given them as duly organized political organizations.

Paragraph four reads as follows: "4. The word 'party,' an association of voters united for the purpose of promoting a common political end or carrying out a particular line of political policy which maintains a general organization throughout the Territory, including a regularly constituted central committee and county committees."

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO HEAR MAN WHO AIDED TELEPHONE INVENTION

Members of the Commercial Club at their luncheon Tuesday will be entertained by a talk by Thomas A. Watson. With the exception of Alexander Graham Bell, it is probably that there is no one who is more familiar with the start of telephony and its growth and progress than Watson. As stated in the Star-Bulletin on the day when Watson arrived from the mainland, he was associated with Bell in his earliest experiments. He talked with him over short wires first and recently over a 9000-mile circuit.

In addition to years of study of telephony and matters electrical, Watson has found time to make geological and botanical investigations and while here he proposes to devote considerable time to observing geological formations and the fauna and flora of the islands.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the encrusted membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

ANNA HELD HAS FINE WARDROBE

Frequently Paramount pictures come to the Liberty theater in which there appears a star who makes some pretense of being expensively clad. Frequently there is little to see—the way of clothes to cost the immense sums advertised. Anna Held appears to be in a class by herself in this respect, it being stated that the small amount of $40,000 was expended in her dear "Parce" for the costumes she wears in "Madame La Presidente," her initial photo-dramatic offering.

This feature of this photo-play is one that has a strong appeal for the fairer sex and one that makes mere males take a firmer grip on the purse-strings. The clothes are undoubtedly beautiful and probably cost all that Anna claims for them but it is a shocking example to be setting to those not in a position to command $75,000 for appearing in a film—the price paid Anna for this appearance.

The story of "Madame La Presidente" is filled with comedy that is subtle and clever.

The present chapter, No. 14, of "The Red Circle" is one that should not be missed by those who have been following this exciting detective story.

G. O. P. BEATS CHAPLIN'S TIME

There will probably be comedy aplenty at the Bijou theater tonight but the inimitable comedian, Charlie Chaplin, and his clever team-mate, Roscoe Arbuckle, will not supply the laughs as the comedians have been side-tracked by Hawaii's G. O. P. The Republican convention will be called upon to provide the thrills and laughs while Chaplin and Arbuckle take a lay-off.

Tuesday night? Well, that's a different story. Chaplin and Arbuckle will then entertain in "The Knock-Out," the big comedy hit in which this pair do "some work" in the prize-ring. No real prize-fight but an excellent excuse to make folks laugh.

On the same bill there will also be seen House Peters and Ethel Clayton in "The Great Divide," a magnificent picture of the West in which the Grand Canyon of Colorado has been brought into the scene by the photographer and made to do yeoman work.

HEALANI BOYS GIVE JOLLY MOONLIGHT RIDE

The bus ride given by the Healani "kid crew" on Saturday evening to Koko Head was a jolly affair. Twenty-three persons made up the party.

At 7:45 the bus left Thomas square, and arrived at its destination at about 7:50 o'clock. A delicious luncheon was served on the beach. Mrs. Sanborn L. R. Short chaperoned the party.

Bruno Karnowski, of New Haven, a recruit, committed suicide recently by putting a bullet through his head.

'LITTLE ITALY' SHOWN IN SIN

Hawaii is often referred to as "the melting pot," and the term is most appropriate with the exception of the leading word—"the." Hawaii is "a" melting pot and one of a number scattered through the world. New York City is another and does not differ greatly from Hawaii excepting in size and in the fact that it draws from the other side of the world. The photo-play now being shown at the Hawaii theater with Theda Bara in the leading role, "Sin," gives an intimate picture of a portion of New York that is constantly feeding the melting pot of that city. It is "Little Italy," so called for the reason that there gather the emigrants from sunny Italy upon their entry into the new world.

It is from "Little Italy" that the newly-arrived, filled with dreams of wealth that are, alas, too often destined to be shortly and rudely shattered, makes his start for the "horn of plenty." It is back to "Little Italy" that many of them journey when, thoroughly disillusioned, they prepare to return to their native land. It is from "Little Italy" there come those who, after diffusion in the melting pot, make the future Americans. It is an interesting little world with all of its own manners and customs and makes an interesting picture aside from the great plot that has been woven into this Theda Bara feature.

"The Master Key" has well been termed "the serial with a punch" and the present instalment is one of the most exciting thus far shown.
